Foreword

Since the founding of Holland Christian High School, there has been a volume printed nearly every year which established a tradition. That book was called "The Footprints."

This year the graduating class of nineteen hundred sixty wishes to present you with the 31st volume of "The Footprints" with the understanding that you will cherish it and the memories it holds for many years to come.

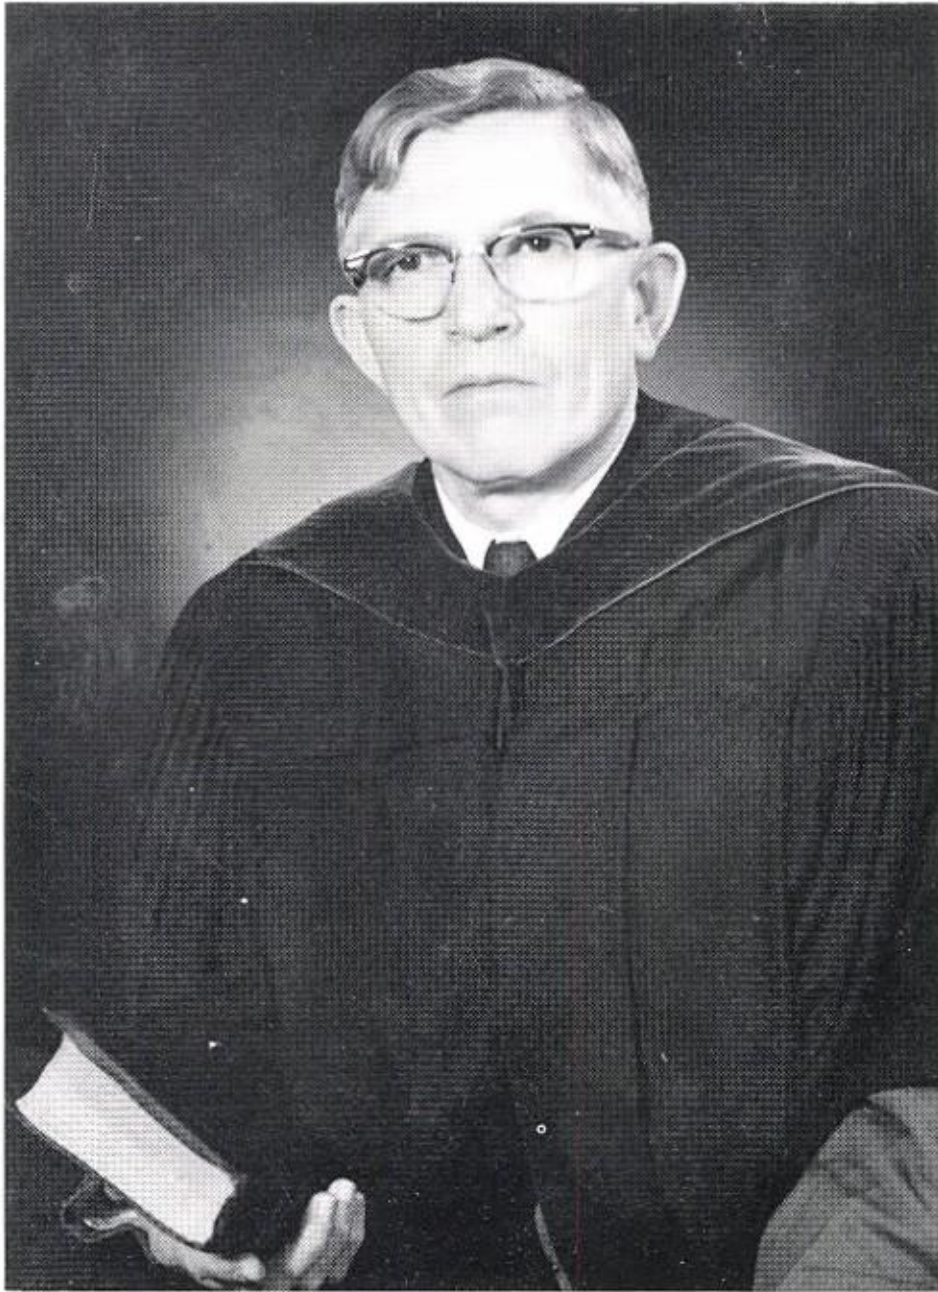

Standing: Mr. Donald Blaauw, Mr. Garret Pothoven, Mr. Vernon L. Tuls, Dr. Robert F. De Haan, Mr. Garry Joldersma, Mr. Donald Branderhorst, Mr. Russel Lamar, Mr. Benjamin Altena, Mr. C. J. Westenbroek, Mr. Russel Boeve, Mr. William De Mots. Seated: Rev. Gerrit Vander Plaats, Mr. Gerald J. Van Wyke, Mr. Paul J. Baker, Mr. Gerald Vande Vusse.

SCHOOL BOARD

The School Board plays a very important, though for the most part, unnoticed and unthanked role in the life of the students at Holland Christian High School. It is not as closely attached to us as our teachers, principal, or superintendent. The Board obtains for us Christian teachers, who lead us into the paths of wisdom. As the ruling body of our school, it keeps our education on a high level, leading us to the goal which is set before us.

Let us all remember these men in their responsible positions as they seek the best interests in our school. We wish them God's choicest blessings in their future endeavors.

Dear Graduates:

Cordial felicitations upon your graduation from Holland Christian High School. May the Lord bless you richly.

It was because of a staunch belief in the lines of the Psalter hymn which follows that our first Christian school was opened in 1901.

"For He has commanded that what He has done Be passed IN TRADITION from father to son."

The purpose, as stated in the first constitution of the School Society, was the establishment of a school in which education would be given in conformity with the teaching of God's Word.

What a blessed tradition is ours! Our school system is dedicated to the purpose of educating children in a positive Christian way.

You have had your basic education in a Christ-centered school. May you ever be grateful for that privilege. May this tradition challenge you to support Christian schools and cause you to "... gladly record The praises, the works, the might of the Lord ..."

Yours in Him,
Bert P. Bos
Superintendent of Schools

As the mighty tree was once the tiny sapling, so the full grown man or woman was once a helpless babe. And as the strength and growth of the tree is developed by its exposure and resistance to the elements, so the course of our lives and character of our being is shaped and formed by our experiences, primarily those of formal education in our youth.

Through the years H.C.H.S. has established the tradition of making education purposeful and meaningful for its students: in creating in them an ever greater awareness and understanding of man and his relation to nature, to the great family of fellow men, and to his God; and in inculcating a love for and appreciation of our spiritual heritage thru the disciplines of literature, history, art, music, and the like.

The Faculty wishes you, the graduates of '60 the blessings of God. May you now help keep alive the tradition that has made H.C.H.S. what it is, yet ever praying and thanking God that our weaknesses may be apparent and we ever willing to overcome and correct them.

Raymond Holwerda

Dedication

The beloved teacher to whom we wish to dedicate this annual is a man whose many years in Christian High have become a tradition, along with our school. A man whose patience, understanding, perseverance and hard work have left and will remain to leave a deep impression upon the lives with which he comes in contact.

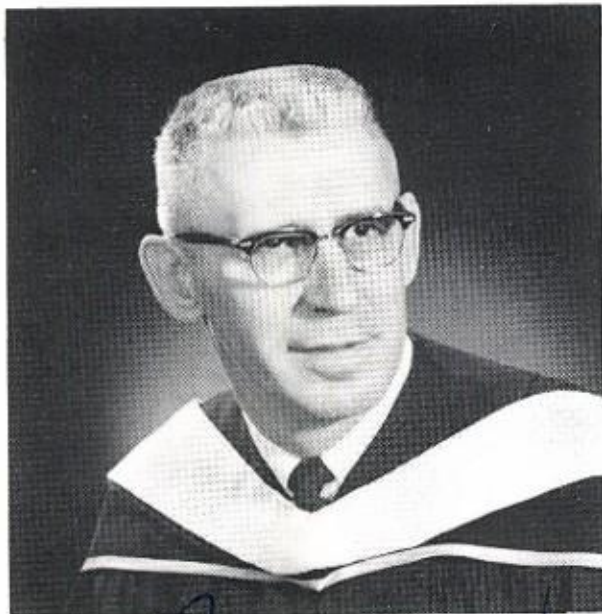

A man whose understanding of music has helped to enthrall large audiences with the renditions of great composers.

He is a man whose unceasing help has made this volume of the "Footprints" possible.

Our Last Will And Testament

ARTICLE I

1. We the Seniors, do hereby bequeath to the "out of its" called Juniors, a king size bottle of our super-potent tonic to aid them in becoming big Seniors next year.
2. We, the Seniors will to the "younguns" known as Sophomores a rung in the ladder to help them get their feet planted on the upper stage of this continuous struggle.
3. We, the Seniors do hereby give to the "little green specks" commonly called Freshmen, a can of color remover to remove the green color from their faces.

ARTICLE II

We, the Class of 1960, do hereby will the following to our longsuffering teachers:

1. To Mr. Vander Linde, we the band members will a bottle of our own hair growing tonic containing that secret ingredient H. C. H. S.—1960, to attempt to replace the many hairs you lost worrying about us.
2. To Mr. H. J. Kuiper we leave, taking you with us.
3. To Mr. Tuls we leave the "makins" of a good basketball team for next year.
4. To Mr. M. Pott we will a few boxes of chalk so he won't have to beg it from other teachers.

ARTICLE III

1. I, Vern Wedeven, leave a dribble of my basketball success to any Freshman who thinks he can make the varsity team next year.
2. I, Ruth De Weerd, leave like a "Flash".
3. We, Ed De Vries and Paul Brink, will our reserved seats at the basketball games, on the bench that is, to anyone who will keep them as warm as we did.
4. We, a group of Senior Boys, do hereby will our black derbys to any group that can get into as much trouble and fun wearing them as we did.

SCHOOL CALENDAR

On September 9 registration was held during one of the hottest days of last summer.

Normal classes began with a new feature—the seven hour day. The routine began and milestones were reached—the first chapel, the first week completed, the first home-room chapel, to mention a few.

The Marine Band sponsored by our band parents came to Holland and gave an impressive concert.

The time for the annual "Frosh" Reception rolled around and the "Greenies" were "officially welcomed" by the mighty Seniors.

Plans were getting underway for the Christmas Card Campaign and other clubs were slowly coming to life.

About this time the Footprints began taking pictures for the annual.

In October Dr. Rottshafer told us of her experiences among the leprosy colonies of India.

Junior School Rings were ordered. Christmas Card samples arrived and the selling began. The Sophomores had a successful magazine drive for Biology. Basketball practice began.

We had a few days vacation for Teachers Institute to which most of the members of our F. T. C. went.

Unexcused absences were common with hunting season coming into full swing.

Cross country competition was sharp.

Now we received our first report cards! UGH! "Footprints" went on sale and the underclassmen pictures were taken.

In November we observed American Education Week and were privileged to have a veterans assembly, one of the few assemblies we were allowed to have.

Cheerleaders were chosen in view of the approaching basketball season.

We also had our annual Thanksgiving Assembly. Christmas cards arrived. We had Thanksgiving Vacation and we won our first basketball game.

Our Honors Quartet was announced and competed in various places.

The choir gave its annual rendition of the "Messiah" at Maple Avenue Church.

We had our annual Christmas assembly and "adjourned from business" for the holidays.

When school began and we had our semester exams.

We won our homecoming game against Grand Rapids Creston.

The second semester began and soon it was time for the seniors to have their Christmas Card Banquet.

Some of the band and orchestra members competed in the annual solo and ensemble contest.

The Debate team ended a very successful season by being defeated in a split decision by an excellent Muskegon team.

Representatives for Girls' State were announced.

We had a Patrol's Assembly and the true Security Essay Contest was held.

For years the students have thought it would be wonderful to have a swimming pool, little dreaming that sometime we would have one. But we did. It was a surprise one morning when we saw that the Gym was completely filled with water. Of course the floor was ruined, but the swimming pool was there.

In March our Basketball team copped another district championship and defeated U. High at Kazoo but we were defeated by Godwin in a hair raising exhibition of sportsmanship.

The Forensic season got underway with thirty-two students taking part.

Finally Spring sports got underway, and into action.

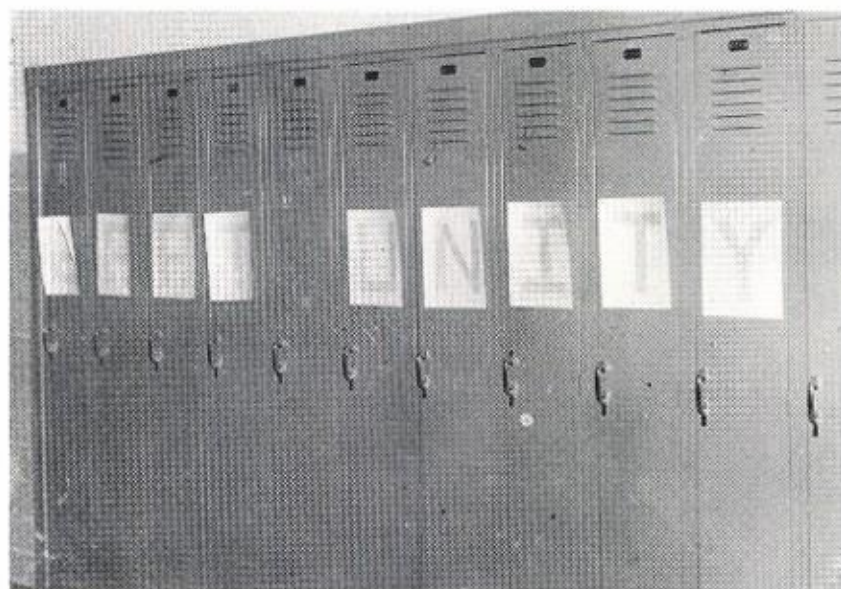

The seniors gave their play, "The Barretts of Wimpole Street."

Spring vacation came and went away. All activities were now at a fever pitch.

The Junior-Senior Banquet which will remain a never to be forgotten memory in the minds of the Juniors, was held.

Honors Assembly was held. The seniors had their "Skip Day", and the annuals were handed out.

Commencement was held and school ended—for some it ended until next fall at Christian, Calvin, Hope, or other schools. But some went on to face the swirling current of life.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Holland Christian had the pleasure of being led and governed by an active and well-organized Student Council. With President Paul Brink at the helm and capably assisted by fellow officers, Ken Koeman, Vice President; Joyce Michmerhuizen, Sec'y; and Karen Koops, Treasurer, they sponsored and initiated a large number of events, including assemblies, all-school parties, Chapel Broadcasts, the January 22nd Homecoming. Buses for away-games, and Exchange Chapels are just a few of the other activities which kept Council members working for the school. We express our appreciation and congratulations for a job well done. Also a note of thanks to Mr. Holwerda, the sponsor of the Student Council.

ECHO

The "Echo" again has enjoyed a very successful season both financially and from a literary standpoint. Under the very capable leadership of Carol Tuls, Editor, and Karl Westerhof, Junior Editor, the "Echo" published ten issues full of information, original compositions, and humorous anecdotes. The business managers also were successful in financing the printing (through advertisement campaigns). Special issues this year again appeared at Thanksgiving and Christmas, and a big Senior information issue just before graduation. Congratulations for your fine contributions to school life.

CHRISTMAS CARD CAMPAIGN

The Senior Class conducted a successful Card Campaign this year under the leadership of Manager Ken Volkers. Ken, together with the 6 homeroom Captains, organized the territories of Holland and Zeeland into districts to be covered by each homeroom, and then assigned a section to each team.

The team of John Harthorn and Dave Dozeman (Mrs. Kruithof's homeroom) took 1st prize in individual team effort by selling $305 worth of Christmas cards.

Karen Quist and Sylvia Nienhuis (Mr. Ribbens' homeroom) came in second.

The total amount collected was $5,979.38. After disbursements for cost of cards and the expenses of the banquet and prizes, the class of '60 rang up a profit of $2,555.46.

WOLVERINE BOYS' STATE

Each year a few of our students have the opportunity of going to the Michigan State campus to Wolverine Boys' State. A complete model government is set up with offices going as high as the state offices. It's just like forming the 51st state.

It's one grand time of campaigning, conventions, rallies, elections, and performing the tasks of your office. Different types of clinics concerning law and various phases of government are offered.

The boys that went to Boys' State of '59 were Dale Cooper and Paul Bremer. The experience they gained during their stay has proved to be invaluable. Memories will last a lifetime, memories of activities and memories of friends, new but not forgotten.

WOLVERINE GIRLS' STATE

The girls chosen to represent our school at Wolverine Girls' State this summer, face a very interesting and exciting ten days at the University of Michigan. Long to be remembered are the fascinating ceremonies and speakers, but most of all, the friends they will make while at Girls' State. These girls have been selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, citizenship, character and personality. They are sponsored by various women's clubs in Holland and must withstand a very rigid elimination. Congratulations!

"The Barretts of Wimpole Street"

by R. Besier

The senior class this year presented a very dramatic play entitled THE BARRETTS OF WIMPOLE STREET on the last days before spring vacation, March 30, 31, and April 1.

The three acts are centered around the love affair of Elizabeth Barrett and Mr. Robert Browning. Everyone in the Barrett household is fearful of the overly strict Papa, and they consequently act like automatons. All of the Barrett boys, George, Henry, Charles, Alfred, Septimus, and Octavius, act this way, and so does their sister Arabel, but their daring sister, Henrietta defies Papa more than once. She is in love with a certain Captain Surtees Cook, but is compelled to keep it a secret because of Papa. Elizabeth's love for Browning, too, was not made known to anyone other than to Wilson, her maid, but the fact becomes quite evident without her telling the family. Bella Hedley, Elizabeth's cousin, and her fiance, Mr. Bevan, arrive in state to visit the family, barouche and all. Bella is a very frivolous person and adds much humor to the play. Two doctors play an important part in the life of Elizabeth Barrett: Dr. Chambers, and Dr. Ford Waterlow. Although everyone seems to think her regaining health was caused by their help, Elizabeth believes the healer is Robert Browning.

FORENSICS

Interest in forensics is again somewhat on the upswing. This year about 35 students turned out for the school elimination contests which were held in the library. Someday, perhaps, the state will make arrangements so that the forensic contests will be held at a different time than the basketball tournaments, and more people will be able to turn out. The winners were:

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET 1959

The night of May the 8th, 1959, will long remain in our memory, for it was the night of the Junior-Senior Banquet given by the class of 1960.

Upon entering that evening, we were transported to an Oriental pagoda of scarlet lattice-work with golden stars. Beneath these sparkling lights stood the blooming trees and flowers of the garden. Everywhere one glanced, from the gay lanterns to the inconspicuous rickshaw, he saw another striking example of the detailed motif.

The Oriental Gardens encompassed a dainty arch which was placed in the spotlight for the early portion of the evening. The lazy pools of water added that one touch of humor by being the abode of several small, equally as lazy turtles.

After all the details had been seen and various comments spoken, we proceeded to eat a sumptuous dinner. This, though it appeared so to many, was not the highlight of the evening however.

A brief intermission was followed by a most enchanting operetta, The Mikado by Gilbert and Sullivan.

The curtain parted on a setting supreme, but it could not surpass the excellent performance of the players from the chorus to the executioner's assistant. As was perfection!

Certainly the most touching moment was when the spotlight fell on the symbolic graduates. The sound of the "Halls of Ivy" faded as many of the forthcoming graduates softly sighed.

This closed an evening which will ever remain unrivaled in our memories, for it was the best Banquet—ever!

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

The Choir under the leadership of Mr. Baas was composed of 62 members. The members elected Ken Koeman as their President, with Karen Kooops acting as Secretary, and Norma Gras as Treasurer.

The traditional performance of Handel's "Messiah" was given in Maple Avenue Christian Reformed Church on December 20. The soloists for the performance were: Mrs. Claus Bushouse, soprano; Mrs. Ruth Nonhof, contralto; Mr. Donald Vanden Bosch, tenor; and Mr. Edwin Diepenhorst, bass.

The Choir participated in the Reconciliation Services held at Dimment Chapel, on January 6th, for the second consecutive year. They sang "The Beatitudes" by Glarum and "Onward, Ye Peoples!" by Sibelius. An annual activity of the choir is entering the District Music Festival in the spring.

CONCERT BAND

Once again the Band got off to a great start. The year began with a trip to East Lansing to watch the M. S. U. vs. Northwestern football game, and then the real work began! First on the schedule was a full concert followed by the Christmas assembly, the Solo and Ensemble Festival for the individual players, Band Festivals, a spring concert, Tulip Time marching, —and another successful year draws to a close.

The Band's officers this year were: Randy Jansen, President; Cal Hulst, Band Manager; Carol De Mots, Secretary; Ruth De Weerd, Librarian.

We sincerely appreciate the fine work which Mr. Vander Linde does with the Band, not only in making music, but in creating a desire for higher goals in the heart of each band member. Congratulations to the Band and their very capable director on a job well done!

PEP BAND

This select group of players is responsible for sparking our often-lagging school spirit. They were present at all our home games, after game socials, and for an occasional pep meeting. We wish to thank the group and Mr. Vander Linde for the extra time and energy spent for our benefit.

H.C.H.S. ORCHESTRA

After about twenty-five years, Christian High can again boast of an orchestra. It is under the capable leadership of Miss Beth Ritsema and has a total of seventeen members, made up of High School, Junior High, and Grade School students.

We wish to thank Miss Ritsema for the fine job she has done with these young musicians and we hope to see an even larger orchestra in the future.

DEBATE CLUB

The debate club had another successful year under the leadership of Mr. Bratt. Many an interesting hour was spent by the club discussing the topic "Resolved that the Federal government should substantially increase its regulation of labor unions." Each member of the club debated at least once before the rest of the club. This year's officers were: Paul Bremer—President; Karl Westerhof—Vice President; and Betty De Wys—Secretary-Treasurer.

Mr. Bratt used three teams in the actual inter school competition. The affirmative team was Paul Bremer and Del Nykamp. The two Negative teams were Jerry Van Wyke—Karl Westerhof and Cal Hulst—Bob De Boer. In the 5-C league (a league of five Christian schools) our debaters tied for the championship with a 6-2 record. In the state competition they had a fine 7-1 record and had an overall record of 13 wins-3 losses. In the tournaments our affirmative team was defeated by an excellent Muskegon High team in a split decision.

DRAMATICS CLUB

This year, after an absence of several years, the popular Dramatics Club was again revived.

In November the club gave two public performances in the Women's Literary Club, which, while they were not a sellout as far as the size of the audience was concerned, were well received and enjoyed by those who did attend. Two one-act plays were given: "The Happy Journey", by Thornton Wilder, which is a light comedy given in the modern style with no setting or scenery; and "The Bishop's Candlesticks", a serious play based on Hugo's "Les Miserables", which tells the story of an escaped convict, who is turned from crime by a bishop. The plays were directed by Mr. M. Pott and Miss Anne Selles, the club sponsors. Officers are: President, Jim Lucas; Vice-President, Katie Brower; and Secretary-Treasurer, Carol De Mots.

Once again the intellectual (?!) forms of humanity called Rara Avis gathered on occasional nights throughout the final months of this school year to discuss another "Rara Avis," namely Plato. These boys intended to decipher Plato's discourses; however, as this page went to press it couldn't be determined how well they succeeded. No meetings were held as yet and therefore no officers had been chosen. Mr. Bratt once again served as the question answerer, (it seems as though the "boys" couldn't answer all the questions), however they did accomplish a great deal, that of severe training of the supra-extremity of the skeletal biped.

Sponsor—Miss Selles

The Library Club consists of girls who assist in the school library one period of each school day. They check books and magazines in and out, bring attendance slips to the study halls, and help Miss Selles and the students in the library in any way they can. Once a month they either attend a business meeting or spend an evening bowling, visiting another library, or engage in other interesting activities.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

The Chemistry Club was formed once again this fall under the sponsorship of Mr. Visser, and proved to be a very active club. Among their activities were a trip to the hospital laboratory, a lecture and demonstration by a local chemist, films, and even an experiment now and then.

The officers of the club this year are as follows: Chuck Mannes, President; Burnell Schrottenboer, Vice-President; Ruth De Weerd, Secretary; Rosemary Vander Maat, Treasurer.

The club meets every other Tuesday night throughout the school year.

BIOLOGY CLUB

The Biology Club was mainly concerned with various projects pertaining to the phases of Biology. All of the members worked on projects during noon hours. They conducted such projects as photo-micrography, leaf skeletons, culturing of bacteria, radio isotopes, radioactivating suds, and nutritional experiments with white rats. Their noon-hour projects plus a few such social activities as speakers and films made up the club's program.

Standing: Marty Bolt, Jason Ten Harmsel, Glenn Klinge, Merle Vander Sluis

RADIO CLUB

The Radio Club was organized again this year. Led by Mr. John De Vries they held occasional meetings throughout the year. One of their objectives was to learn the Morse Code. They discussed and experimented with the principles behind the operation of the radio. This included such things as Ohmes Law, laws of transistors and condensers, and the laws of resistance in series and parallel. The officers for the year were President, Earl Weener, and Secretary-Treasurer, Jack De Graaf.

PHYSICS CLUB

If you have ever wondered who it was meeting upstairs in the old building on occasional nights throughout the year, it was these "geniuses". They were in the Physics Lab. exploring the laws and theories of Physics. Known as the Physics Club, and led by the experience of Mr. J. De Vries, and aided by Earl Koops, President; Ed De Vries, Vice-President; Dale Cooper, Secretary-Treasurer, these boys worked various experiments from a new course of Physics, viewed films about Physics, and worked on projects for the Science Fair.

FUTURE NURSES CLUB

The purpose of the future Nurses Club is to acquaint students with some of the aspects of a nursing career. This purpose was carried out at their meetings as they invited speakers to inform them about this work with their jobs, and also viewed several films. At Christmas time they had a potluck supper. Miss Kooima is the sponsor of this club. The officers are: President, Joyce Michmerhuizen; Secretary, Julie Nagelkirk; Treasurer, Sharon Hemmeke; Vice-All, Ruth Schreur.

"PINKIES"

This year ten Senior girls were chosen to work in the hospital as "pinkies". Their instructor was Mrs. Tien, R.N., from Holland Hospital. The girls, Aletta Bron, Carol De Mots, Sharon Hemmeke, Sally Lappinga, Joyce Michmerhuizen, Phyllis Mouw, Ruth Schreur, Elly Schuurig, and Mary Van Heuvelen, first had classes and then went to work on the floors. The hardest lesson they had to learn and the one they forgot most often was to call each other Miss So-and-So. The work was rewarding and gave them a good taste of hospital life.

FUTURE TEACHERS CLUB

This club is off to a wonderful beginning this year. The year began with a trip to the Future Teachers' Convention in Grand Rapids, Michigan. A tour of Knollcrest and Calvin College proved interesting and everyone had a grand time. Speakers and panel discussions were some of the highlights of the year. The purpose of the club is to interest all those who have decided or are trying to decide upon a teaching career.

The officers of the club are: Carol Tuls, President; Joyce Weener, Vice-President; Karen Koops, Secretary; Ruth De Weerd, Treasurer. Mr. Kuiper sponsors this group.

Standing: Karen Koops, Carol Schipper, Joanne Peerbolte, Elaine Peerbolte, Eleanor Mannes, Luella Balder, Julie Nagelkirk

"TEACHIES"

These senior girls were chosen to be teachers' assistants at the various Christian grade schools in Holland. They give up one study period per day and also much of their otherwise spare time.

SENIOR SOCIAL CLUB

The Senior girls enjoyed many social gatherings throughout the year. We had a Pizza Party at Christmas time, a film on the "Gracious Hostess", a hair stylist talked to us and we also had a demonstration on flower arranging. The officers are: President Norma Gras, Vice President Julie Nagelkirk, Secretary-Treasurer, Ruth Schreur. Our sponsors are Mrs. Kruithof and Miss Vander Ark.

JUNIOR SOCIAL CLUB

Sponsored by Miss De Witt, the meeting of the Junior Girls was organized under the theme "Formal Occasions", working toward the Junior-Senior Banquet—of course! Such things as dieting, formal dress, hairdressing, and formal behavior were discussed and explained at the different noon-hour meetings, which were planned by a committee composed of all the club officers: President, Katie Brower; Vice-President, Marla Langejans; Secretary-Treasurer, Janice Petroelje.

SOPHOMORE SOCIAL CLUB

"How to Improve Your Appearance" was the theme of the meetings that the Sophomore Social Club held this year. Miss Kuiper and Miss Huizinga were the sponsors. Nancy Boylon, President; Kris Vogelzang, Vice-President; and Linda Hertel, Secretary-Treasurer, were the officers this year.

At their first meeting a lesson in hairstyling was demonstrated by a representative from Personality Beauty Salon. Miss Kuiper demonstrated a facial at another meeting. Miss Huizinga had charge of meetings on color co-ordination, accessories, and posture. They closed the year with a grand style show in which members of the Club participated.

FRESHMAN SOCIAL CLUB

The Freshman Girls' Social Club is under the sponsorship of Mrs. Kleis and Miss Kooima. The officers, Ellen Osterhaven, President; Nancy Hoek, Secretary-Treasurer; and Mary Dykstra, Vice-All, and the entertainment committee, planned such events as a Christmas party, a spring tea, and skits on grooming and manners.

Mr. Tuls, Varsity Coach

Mr. Pott, Reserve Coach

COACHES

The Varsity, under the splendid coaching of Mr. Tuls, proved their mettle against the strong opposition of many classy ball clubs this year. Mr. Tuls will always be remembered by everyone as an outstanding figure in sports and sportsmanship, and for the small group that plays under him each year he means even more.

He spent many hours of long and tiring effort in molding the team into another fine unit. Too often we forget the efforts of the players, managers, and coaches in writing another chapter in our annals of basketball fame.

The Little Maroons were again ably coached by Mr. C. Pott. Despite his resignation last year, he was convinced he was needed for another year and came back to lead the Reserves to another very fine season.

The memory of his fine sportsmanship and dynamic leadership of the team will long remain in the memories of the players and fans alike. Regardless of how the game was going he always was doing his best to inspire the team to even finer play.

VARSITY

Our varsity ended the regular season with a record of 10 wins and 8 losses. They then went on in Zeeland to cop the district championship. They defeated Hudsonville High by a lopsided score of 63-38 with Bouman scoring 16 points. Then they defeated a good Unity squad for the third time this season by a score of 63-54. Smits had 18 points, Visser had 17, and Walters had 13 to pace the way to victory.

After winning the district championship they advanced to the regionals. In the first game they defeated stated rated University High 60-57. Wedeven hit for 24 points and Visser had 12. Then they were defeated in the next game by Godwin 58-55. Visser led the way for the Maroons with 19 points. With this loss and the end of the season their record was 13 wins and 9 losses.

The team's combined free throw shooting average was 60.4%. They stored a total of 1,238 points compared to 1,142 for their opponents.

RESERVES

"Hot Shots," "smooth," "classy" are just a few names given the Reserve Team. However, the one most often repeated was "WINNERS." They ended with the spectacular record of 16 wins, and 2 losses. The play was marked by "team play" with each of the five starters being high scorer at various times. A good deal of the credit and glory, as the boys will tell you, belongs to Coach Pott.

VARSIITY CLUB

These boys, most of whom we recall seeing in a maroon and white jacket, are members of the Varsity Club. These varsity letterwinners have had enjoyable times at their monthly meetings.

Included in their projects for the year were the selling of candy at our home basketball games, selling school sweatshirts, and promoting the all-sports banquet held in the spring. The officers were Paul Brink, President; Ben Bonselaar, Vice-President; Wes Schripsema, Secretary-Treasurer. They served under the much appreciated guidance of Mr. Ribbens.

BASEBALL

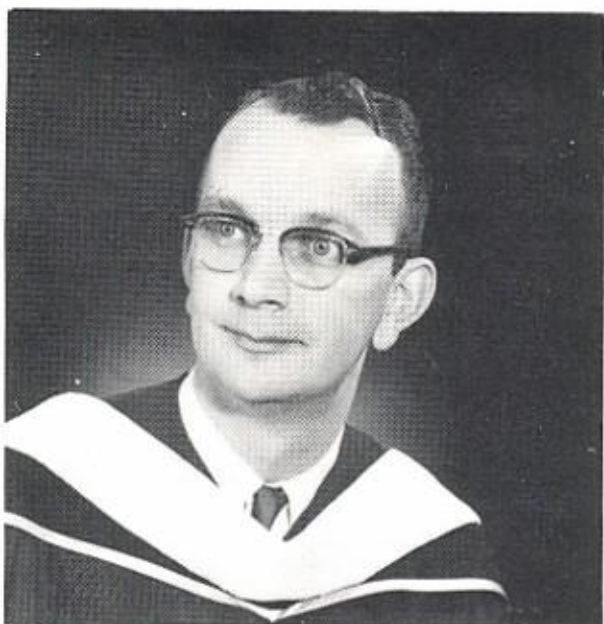

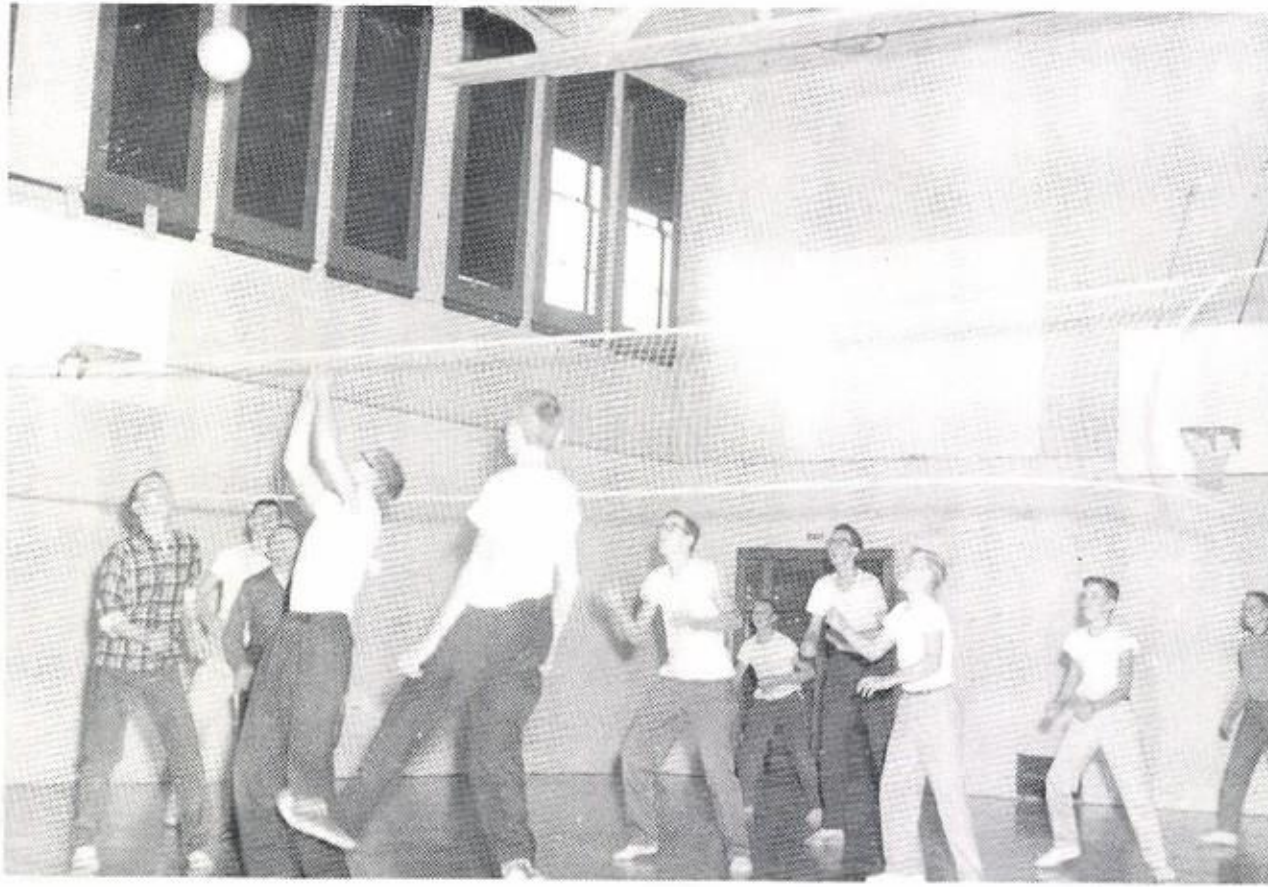

Baseball, perhaps, suffers least from student apathy, and this year we have good reason to believe that our boys will have a better season than usual. Built around four veterans and several promising underclassmen, the baseball team is again being coached by Mr. Ribbens.

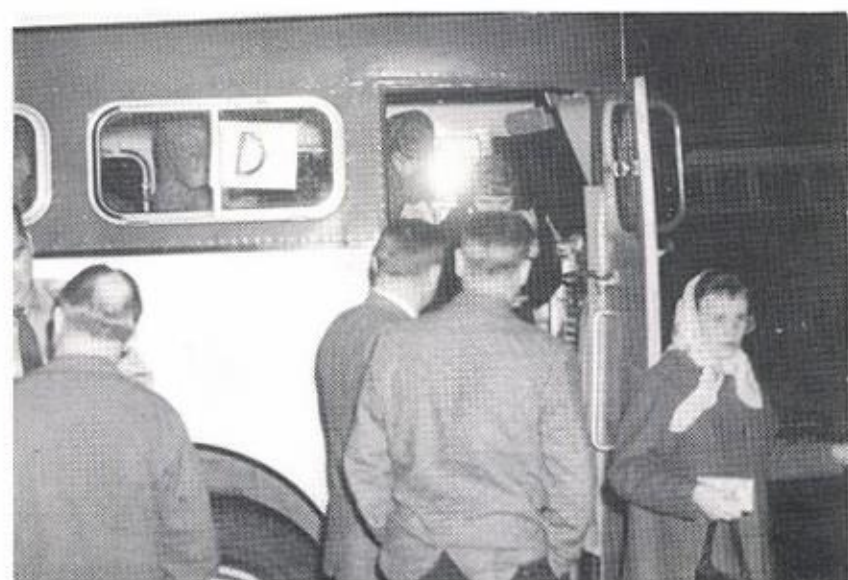

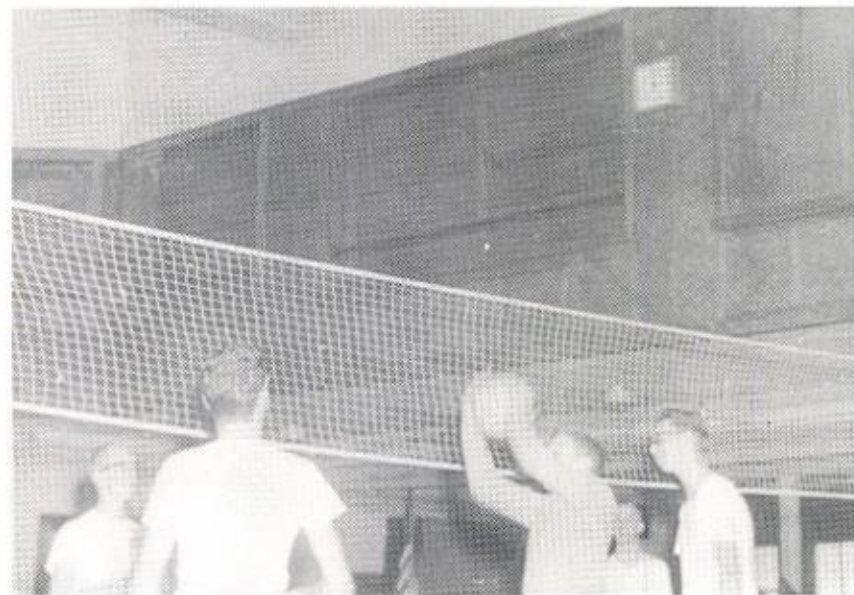

INTRAMURAL

Mr. Ribbens was once again in charge of the noon-hour activities in the gym. Teams were formed and volleyball and basketball occupied most of their time.

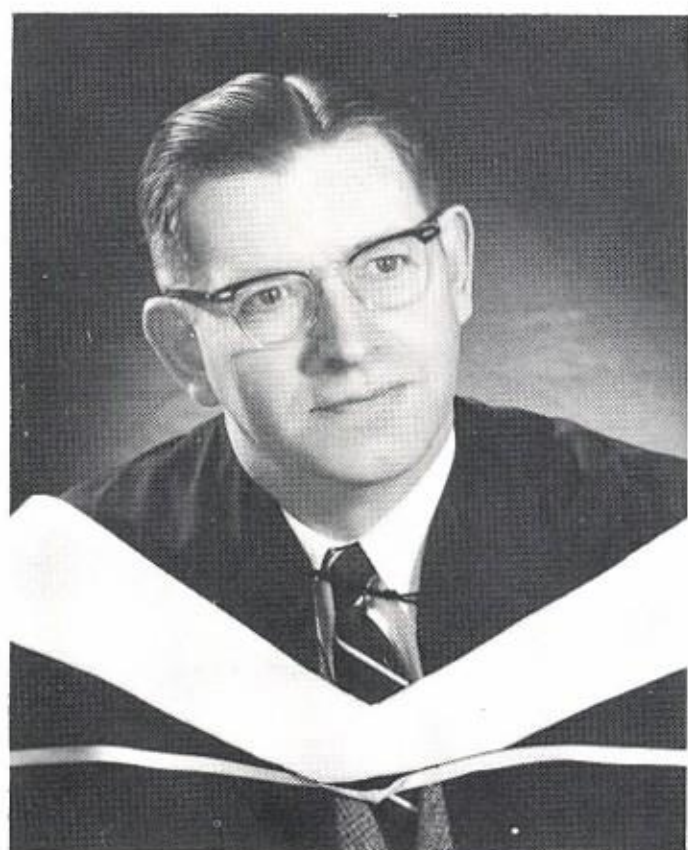

Mr. Ribbens has done a fine job, and we thank him for all the work he has done on this program.

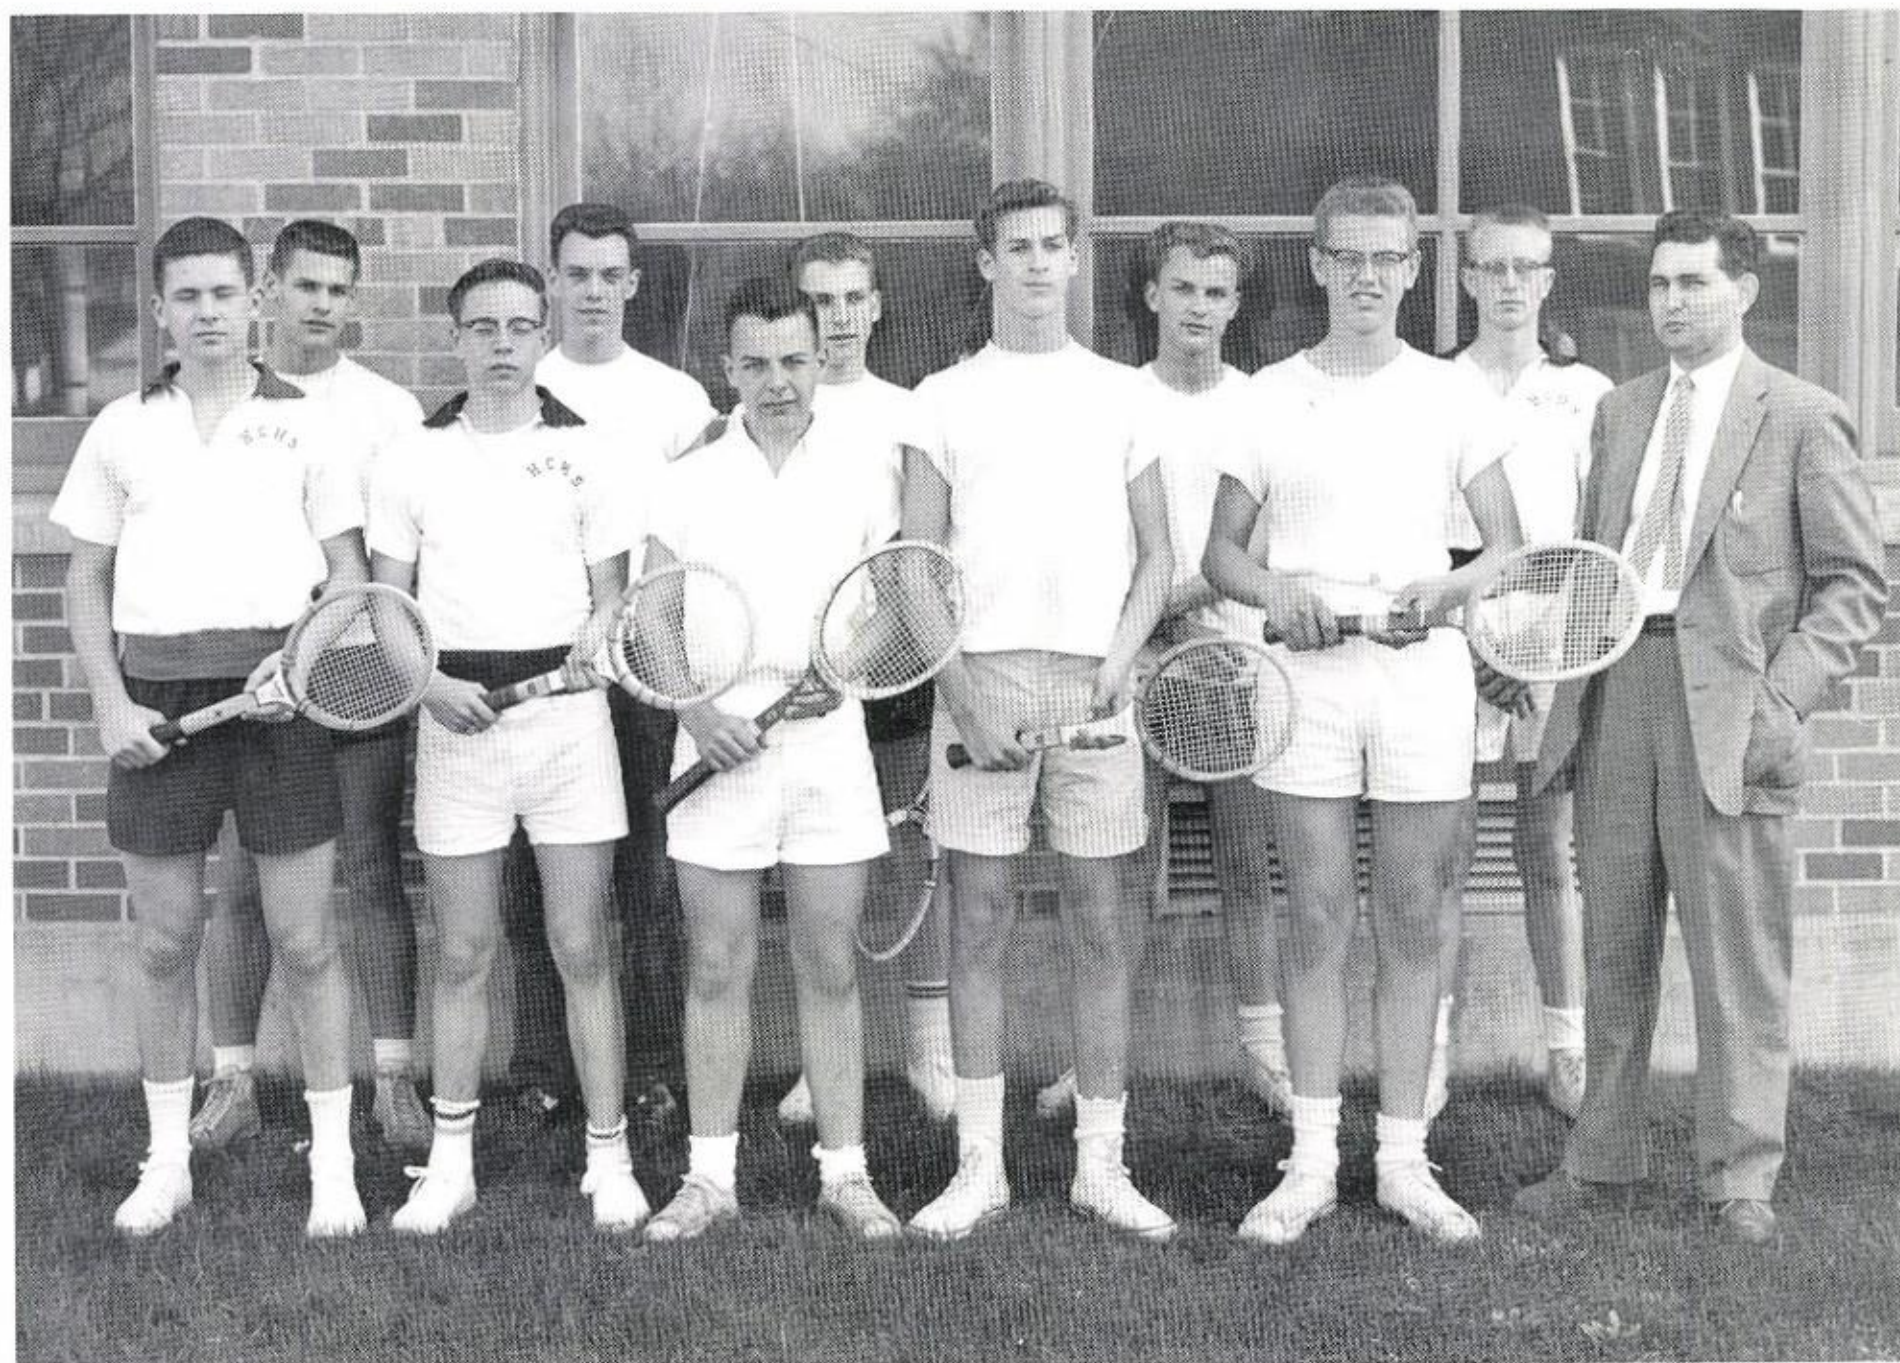

Bob Appledorn, Paul Tuls, Cal Deur, John Tuls, Bruce Ehrich

GOLF

The golf team this year is in the position, considered by some to be enviable and by others to be pitiable, of being coached by none other than Mr. Holwerda. His golfing prowess is well known to everybody. Golf looks as if it will be one of the strongest teams this year since its organization many seasons ago. As with most strong teams, this is largely due to a big returning staff of veterans who can bear the brunt of the attack, plus an encouraging turnout of freshmen and sophomores to provide strength in coming years.

TENNIS

The Tennis Team's prospects look very promising this year, with many of last year's team returning.

The Tennis Team is being coached by Mr. Grissen, who is building the team into a strong unit, which ended the season last year with an 11-1 record and also won the Class B Regional tennis title.

Interest in tennis has been growing for the past few years, and this year's team composed of both experienced and new talent should prove worthy of our interest.

TRACK

If the student body is more aware of baseball than of most other spring sports, then certainly it is least aware of the existence of the track team. Attendance at track meets averages about a dozen—and most of that dozen, it seems, are relatives of team members who are there only because they have no way home. . . The track team is being coached by Mr. Persenaire. Morale is high this year because of big turnout of freshmen in addition to the returning veterans. At the very least we may expect a better season than last year's—our strongest department being the running events. M Meyer whose picture appears here is Assistant Coach.

CROSS COUNTRY

Cross country is a very new sport in our school. It is a two-mile run over hill and dell (usually golf courses). The low score in cross country is the winner. This year we won three out of five meets. We placed second in the Calvin Invitational Meet at which Dave De Vries, Doug Windemuller, and Clare Van Wieren took 5th, 8th, and 10th places respectively. This meet was among Grand Rapids Christian, South Christian, Unity Christian, Muskegon Christian, and Holland Christian. We placed 5th in the Class B Regionals out of approximately 18 schools.

Coach Persenaire is looking forward to next year which should be good as most of the lettermen are returning.

PINK BOOTIES

by Thea Beckman

Moving to the new house had not been particularly disturbing in itself, but the fact that there was going to be an addition to our quiet family of three was quite an emotional strain, not on my mother, of course, but on me.

Here I was an adult of four years of age, about to have the responsibilities of caring for a baby in the near future; and the only practice I had had with babies was with Suzy, a very dear friend of mine, which I had purchased all by myself. (Suzy was my doll.) Putting diapers on an inanimate object was then a difficult task in itself, but with a wriggling, squirming infant the task would be multiplied a hundred fold.

In my own young mind I had developed a feeling of superiority. You see, my mother was having a baby only because I wanted something to brag about to the other neighboring children; or so I thought.

"Of course I will take over the household when you go away," I told my mother with an air of authority, "and I'll take good care of Daddy too!" Naturally since my father was only 29 years older than I; and therefore not capable of taking care of himself, I took upon myself an additional responsibility.

Each day I would dust off the old baby bed, proud of the fact that I had occupied it before the expected intruder, and then I would go outdoors and explain to Pat, my most friendly enemy, all about being a mother, since she was expecting a new addition too!

Of course, my information was not always of the highest calibre. Take, for example, the time Pat asked me how we would know if it was a girl or a boy, and I told her that girls come with pink booties and boys come with blue.

Finally the tremendous event was ready to occur, and boy it certainly was an event! Daddy hustled me off to Grandma's, contrary to the belief that I was going to take over the household; and worse than that, I didn't even have time to remind Mommy, for the seven hundredth time that I wanted a sister because pink was my favorite color.

For hours I sat in the darkness of Grandma's lovely smelling kitchen, waiting for a voice at the other end of the telephone to tell me it was a pudgy little girl with pink booties and curly black hair just like Suzy's.

No one will ever be able to know the tremendous shock it was to my little system to hear next morning that Daddy had already called and Grandma knew before I did whether it was a girl or a boy; however, Grandma quickly supplied the information that it was a boy and I quickly told her she was mistaken because I had specifically ordered a girl with pink booties.

All through the following days, Grandma kept saying it was a nice little brother, and all through the remaining days, I kept telling her it was a girl. Soon Mommy and the baby would be home so I could show Grandma the pink booties. That would prove it.

It seemed like eons before Mommy's coming home reached my strained ears, but soon everything was ready for Mommy's return. Daddy drove Grandma and me home so that I could dust off the baby bed. Well, you can just imagine how excited I was when the car pulled up into the driveway. I peaked out of the window trying to look casual and unaffected; but when I saw Daddy carrying a bundle of something very lively, I lost all control of emotions and became hysterically happy.

Within ten minutes, everyone in the house, all the relatives, and neighbors for blocks around had viewed the magnificent infant—except me. People kept crowding around the baby bed that I had dusted off, and no one even mentioned what a beautiful child I was. Oh, it was all that baby's fault.

Finally after what seemed like hours, the sky began to darken and the visitors began to dribble out. While Mommy and Daddy were saying goodby to the last group of visitors, I quietly tip-toed into the baby's softly lighted room, with a feeling of awe and reverence and there, sleeping soundly was a baby. With a feeling of elation I slowly lifted the covers of the soft blanket and there, lodged on the feet of the child were—yellow booties.

I LOVE THEE MORE FOR NOBLENES

With line that flows like sherry wine
In speech and eloquence divine,
Your tongue does quite my heart entwine.

Your voice is filled with sensuous tone,
And glitters like a sparkling stone,
A diamond which is yours alone.

Thy body is but filled with grace,
Such that all flaws it does erase.
Nothing's as lovely as thy face.

Yet of a truth, I must confess,
That for thy beauty, nonetheless,
I love thee more for nobleness.

TULIP TIME

"It's tulip time in Holland
Every year in May."
At least, that's what the people
Around here say;
But if you want to know
The truth that I have found,
It's tulip time in Holland
All the year around.
This tulip time is not
Where parades occur all day,
But it's the time when tulips
Love-words say.
These tulips need not bloom
Under a sunny sky,
But on a moon-lit night;
And do you wonder why?
Some like their tulips yellow;
At least, that's what they said,
I always like them best
When they're a flashy red.
Most people like their tulips
Along the streets,—that's fine;
I always like them best
When they are touching mine!

REFLECTIONS ON PRAYER

When man to God draws near,
From him
Must come the feeling of a tear,
For sin.

So full of awe,
So full of majesty;
Still loving Father
Is He to me.

So heavenly,
So spiritual;
Yet immanent
And personal.

NIGHT MOOD

The moon shines and the waves wash
Upon the shore.
Clouds cover the stars
But the moon still shines.
The wind blows only a breath here and
A breath there,
But the waves wash over the sand.
A nightbird calls.
The wind moans, now louder.
Now softer, as it slips through the grass and
Over the sand.
It is night
But the world
Goes on.

HYMN TO THE SUN

The sun is a great, golden bubble,
Blown by the breath of God;
It drifts in its solitude across the azure sky,
And at twilight,
Sinks into the darkness,
To be forgotten 'til dawn.

By Katie Brower

Both his feet and his heart grew heavier as he trudged through the burning sands. He had no idea of the time, but his stomach told him it had been hours since he had last eaten. Now the sun was slipping below the horizon, and with it, his former optimism. His ankles felt like jello. Then his knees buckled, and he dropped clumsily, too weary to break his fall. All of his strength was gone. But his mind was still there—he must not lose that. No—he wouldn't allow that to happen.

He made himself think, remember, recall. This would help him retain his mind. So he thought. In his mind was a blurred outline of his beloved homeland—America. Then a scene snapped vividly into focus. It was in the New York harbor. The gap of glistening water grew wider and wider between his loved ones and himself. He couldn't forget those figures on the shore. Mother was weeping. He had told her not to, but he understood. All mothers cry when Uncle Sam takes their sons overseas. Carol was there too, of course. She had looked so lovely that day, even through the tears. He could still see her face in exact detail. It portrayed hope, and faith, and love. The corners of her mouth had turned up and her eyes had begun to twinkle. Then in her gentle, child-like way, she had said, "And Jack, you be sure to bring home a medal. You deserve one, you know."

He smiled. These words of Carol were typical of her persistent faith. Her influence was strong, so powerful that it pulled him to his feet. He took a faltering step, then another. He walked on, stiffly at first, then smoothly.

His strong will refused to let him think logically. It kept from him the reality that was overshadowing his path like a cloud of vultures. Sure, he was miles from food, water, and people. Sure, the crash would have completely demolished the plane, and the radio wouldn't work. Besides, to locate even the remains of the plane would be impossible. But these thoughts never entered his mind, not now.

He walked on, gazing through misty eyes at the eternal sunset. It reminded him of Carol's radiant face. Then he was swallowed up by the horizon, and became part of it.

MEINE VERBINDLICHKEIT ZU DEN ANDEREN

by Carol Tuls

My obligations to others not only include the binding power of a vow or promise but also a benignant relationship between me and my fellowman.

Cooperation and personal interest, without regard to the other's status, is important toward promoting friendship. A sincere smile, too, goes a long way in gaining access to a person's heart. Friendship, I believe, is important in realizing our obligations to others.

As God's creatures we all have responsibilities, and in living up to these, we should glorify Him! We are obliged to show respect for our peers as well as for our elders. In avoiding degrading gossip, submitting to authority, and being reliable, we cultivate a mutual respect for one another.

At home, love moves us to meet our obligations. Evidence of this love is in the honor and respect we have for our parents. From this love stem the small favors and also the Christian relationship needed to make a truly Christian family. We, as individuals, now, have many responsibilities placed upon our shoulders; and it is our duty to live up to these obligations.

Each one of us has an obligation to "Go!" Ardent and thorough preparation for my task in life is very important, because, as a future teacher, I will be a representative of God to my fellowman. I must be successful at attaining a high academic standing and sincere in desiring to serve so as to be better enabled to teach those who are in the dark spiritually and intellectually.

Truthfulness, benevolence, gratitude, happiness, loyalty, love, and the Christian faith—all these I must uphold so I can better be a fine example. I have this obligation and others, and I must ever live up to them.

YOUTH ON THE CHALLENGE OF LIFE

by Paul Brink

Youth has been told to analyze the challenge of life. As he eagerly attempts to solve this problem, he first sets out before him several possible answers; he then purposes to pick the most desirable conclusion. Because of scientific emphasis in his age, youth first considers the challenge to conquer the realm of space. Next the undaunted Youth considers the turmoil of the political world. He is intrigued by the possibility of becoming powerful in the governmental offices of his nation. Similar turmoil in the economic world causes him to consider the possibility of a business profession. In his eagerness he next turns to the task of the training of the young. The field of education appeals to him.

After several similar considerations, Youth, with his enthusiasm somewhat waning, turns his powers of concentration to the questions, "Must I find a challenge in life? Does everyone else find one?" For a time he neglects the former question and weighs the second. He discusses the challenge of the common working man. "Does he have a challenge?" asks Youth. Perhaps his challenge is to make enough money so that he can live luxuriously. Perhaps early retirement is his ambition. Maybe he lives only to live riotously, making as much trouble and raising as much commotion as he can in life. Then Youth reconsiders, becomes more gracious, and says perhaps the challenge of such a person is to live a good life and bring up his children in such a way of goodness.

Then Youth, becoming increasingly perplexed, questions if this is not the purpose and challenge of every man who has ever lived. Can it be that everyone has the same challenge in life? Youth reasons that this cannot be since everyone has different abilities and cannot fulfill the same challenge. Yet Youth cannot deny that every person has the challenge to live a good life. Youth is in a dilemma!

Soon he acknowledges his difficulty and seeks out his neighbor, Age. When he explains his quandary to him, Age suggests the initial purpose of man. For this answer he consults the book of books which has endured through all the problems of time and has always served as a guide for young people; the book, the Bible. Age points out in the first chapter of this book that God, the Creator of man, made him in His own image. It is man's purpose, he explains, to strive to reflect that image of God so that God may be praised and glorified. "How may I glorify God?" asks Youth. Age answers that he must attempt as best he can, trusting God for strength and direction, to live the life God has prescribed in His Law. This Law He has summarized in these words, "Love thy God above all, and thy neighbor as thyself."

Youth thanks his friend Age for his help, and declares that he will always strive to do the will of his Creator. Thus mentally strengthened, Youth retires for an evening of rest, determined to rise on the morrow and fulfill the great challenge of life set before him in the Word of God.

Farewell

And so, the senior class, with many years of Christian preparation behind, and the future before, march forward with determination, following in the footsteps of our fathers and their fathers before them.

We leave behind us four years of struggling, of fun, of learning, of working, of study and play, four years of memories, four years of experience and four years of growing up.

And now, with regret, we bid farewell to the teachers, to the bustling halls, to the crammed lockers and to the cold rooms, to those quicky quizzes, to that small talk between classes, and with sad heart we bid farewell to friends.

But though the farewell may be until eternity, we will always remember the special things and we will realize with appreciation the tremendous influence these past four years have been toward attaining the goal set for us by our forefathers.

We thank Our Maker for placing us in an environment where the Motto is and always has been "Nothing Without Divine Guidance."
